FOUNDER

The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little.' - Franklin. D. Roosevelt

In the past one year, iCFDR organised several events and campaigns to address a multitude of issues within the context of our agenda. From conducting and/or participating in campaigns on Gender Equality and Make in India to organizing and coordinating events like Ganga Ghat Cleaning or Road Safety & Traffic Awareness, it was a year where iCFDR capitalised on several opportunities to move yet another inch closer to attempt at achieving its end goal.

We have immense appreciation for our partners, donors and team members who have been a very important part of our journey so far and we trust that, with their continued support, guidance and feedback we shall be able to grow larger every passing year. With this in mind, we look forward to increasing our activities and extend our work to cover more cities and suburbs over the next coming months. Flip inside the pages of our fourth annual report and give us your valuable suggestions so that we can improve our work and help serve you and the cause better.

We firmly believe that together we can build a better and fairer society'. Here are wishes for a grand success to everyone that they start this year.

INTRODUCTION

Indian Centre for Development and Rights (iCFDR) is a non-profit humanitarian organization working for the upliftment of marginalized and weaker sections of the society. It aims to increase societal awareness in the areas of education, healthcare, environment, poverty alleviation and gender equality. iCFDR promotes basic education, aides in improving maternal health as well as reducing infant mortality rates and other related diseases. It strives to work towards eradicating extreme poverty and hunger, advocating for human rights especially in relation to gender equality, raising awareness on empowering women and promote environmental sustainability. iCFDR conducts both long-term and short campaigns and events that strive to meet these goals so as to drive the society towards the vision we have.

GENDER EQUALITY CAMPAIGN

This has become yet another flagship event of iCFDR. , We host the Gender Equality campaign every year at various place under different names . This campaign enthralls the idea of supporting equal rights for all genders who may have been afflicted by domestic violence and/or sexual assault. This is an annual drive that intends to promote gender equality. This year's campaign was conducted on 26th May 2016 and saw good participation from various cities. Through this awareness campaign we urged people to come forward and share their stories related to the kind of abuses they had suffered. In addition to this, we provided them with a platform for sharing their messages about gender equality and what it meant to them. Photographs from the campaign are given below:

ENVIRONMENT DAY- GANGA GHAT CLEANING

Considering the plight of rivers in our country and the increasing water pollution, iCFDR within the context of promoting environmental sustainability undertook an initiative to clean river Ganga in Bareilly in partnership with iNext, a newspaper from Jagran group. iCFDR conducted "Ganga ghat Cleaning" event on 4th June 2016 and saw participation from many volunteers for this cause. BAREILLY (22 May): चिलचिलाती धूप से तपती जमीं पर बिना स्लिपर्स के नंगे पांव चलना कितना मुश्किल है, इसका अंदाजा सहज ही लगाया जा सकता है। लेकिन इसी तपती धूप में न जाने कितने ऐसे गरीब हैं, जो भूख को मिटाने के लिए नंगे पांव तपती सड़क पर चलने को मजबूर हैं। शहर के कुछ ऐसे भी युवा हैं जिन्हें यह छाले नजर आए तो उन्होंने इन पांवों में स्लिपर्स पहनाने की योजना बनाई। संडे को भारतीय युवा नेतृत्व फोरम के बैनर तले करीब 150 से ज्यादा गरीबों को स्लिपर्स बांटे गए। इस मौके पर संगठन के रविंद्र सिंह, अनमोल, रजत, अमित व अन्य मौजूद रहे।
